

SCOTS MAGAZINE,

For JUNE 1794.

CONTENTS.

	Page.		Page.
On Feeding Cattle with potatoes	310	Situation with America	346
Metereological Observations— Aurora borealis	310	Reasons of Protest against Suspension of Habeas Corpus	346
Characteristical Sketches—Earl of Stafford	311	IN HOUSE OF COMMONS,
Character of George. II. with the state of literature and arts during his reign	313	Penitentiary Houses	347
Memoirs of Mr Aikman (concluded)	316	His Majesty's message regarding seditious practices	347
Curious speech made to King James VI. at the town of Perth	317	Debate thereon	348
On the Necessity of Distinction of Ranks in Society (concluded)	319	Election laws	348
On the Government of the Passions, from Lady Wallace's Letters	323	Report of the Secret Committee	349
Living in Style	326	Thanks of the House to Sir C. Grey and Sir J. Jervis, &c.	351
On Drill Husbandry	327	Repeal of Tests	351
Hortensia—a moral Tale	327	LONDON GAZETTE INTELLIGENCE
STATE PAPERS.		From May 16. to June 14.—containing much interesting information from the Duke of York, Lord Hood, and Lord Howe, &c.	352—362
Note by the Russian General respecting the Manifesto of the Polish insurgents	330	List of British and French fleets, &c.	362
Proclamation by Gen. Kosciusko	331	FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.
Proclamation by the King of Poland	332	Affairs in the South	363
REVIEW OF NEW BOOKS.		Northern Frontier	363
Sullivan's Travels among the Alps, &c.—Origin of limestone, marble, &c.	333	Brussels—Poland	364
Of the deluge	336	America	365
List of New Publications	336	LONDON.
POETRY.		Persons apprehended for treasonable and seditious practices	366
Ode for his Majesty's birth-day	337	Rejoicings on Ld Howe's victory	367
On Spring—a parody on Shakspeare	337	Embargo taken off British vessels in American ports	367
Equality—an Ode	337	Incidental occurrences, &c.	367
Epigram ( Est modus in rebus )	338	IRELAND.
MONTHLY REGISTER.		Reit in the county of Cavan	368
France—National Convention	339	EDINBURGH.
PARLIAMENTARY INTELLIGENCE.		Incidental occurrences	369, 70
IN HOUSE OF LORDS,		General Report of the Weather, &c.	371
French Corp	342	Lists—Captures, Marriages, Births, Deaths, Promotions, Promotions, Bankrupts, Prices of Grain, Meal, Stocks, &c.	371—376
Trial of Mr Hastings	343
Committee of Secrefy	343

EDINBURGH:

Sold by JAMES WATSON & Co. No 40, South Bridge.
 And by the Principal Booksellers in Town and Country.
 And by T. KAY, Strand, London.

At Arbroath, Robert Rolland, Esq; youngest of Auchmithie, to Miss Gray Watton, daughter of James Watson, Esq;

June 1. At London, Charles Edmonstone, Esq; of Lincoln's Inn, second son of Sir Archibald Edmonstone, Bart. to Miss Emma Wilbraham Bootle, daughter of Richard Wilbraham Bootle, Esq;

2. At Brighton, Capt. David Hunter, youngest of Burside, to Miss Margaret Douglas, eldest daughter of William Douglas, Esq; of Brighton.

3. At Illington, Mr Archibald Menzies, merchant in Edinburgh, to Miss S. H. Cunnison, eldest daughter of Mr James Cunnison, merchant in London.

4. At Aberdeen, Mr James Beattie, Professor of Philosophy in the Marischall College, to Miss Jessie Innes, youngest daughter of the late Mr Alexander Innes of Clerkseat.

11. At Finlayston, John Cunningham, Esq; of Craighends, to Miss Maxwell, eldest daughter of the late Sir James Maxwell of Pollock, Bart.

— At London, the Hon. Mr Stewart, eldest son of Lord Londonderry, to Lady Amelia Hobart, youngest daughter of the late Earl of Buckinghamshire, sister to Lady Ancrem.

12. At Edinburgh, George Cheape, Esq; of Pusk, to Miss Lillias Guthrie, eldest daughter of James Guthrie of Craigie

16. Thomas Haviland, Esq; captain in the 45th regt. to Miss French, niece to the Right Hon. Edmund Burke.

17. Mr John Falconer, merchant in Glasgow, to Miss Mary Lockie.

18. At Edinburgh, William Cunningham, Esq; of Enterkin, to Miss Catharine Stewart, eldest daughter of Major-General Alexander Stewart of Alton, M. P.

— At Whinfield, Dr John Rutherford, of barrist, to Miss Beatrix Stedman, daughter of John Stedman of Whinfield, Esq;

20. Robert Anderson, Esq; merchant in Edinburgh, to Miss Elenora Elliot, second daughter of Cornelius Elliot, Esq; W. S.

— At Edinburgh, James Mercer, Esq; of Nessbank, to Miss Ann Ainslie, daughter of the deceased Henry Ainslie, Esq;

24. At London, John Weston of Sutton Place, in the county of Surry, Esq; to Miss Conitible, daughter of W. H. Maxwell Conitible, Esq; and Lady Winifred Maxwell.

BIRTHS.

A Calcutta, the Lady of Capt. Shawe, of His Majesty's 76th regiment, a daughter.

At Elandell, the Lady of Doctor Oglevy, a son.

At Cossimbazar, the Lady of T. Brown, Esq; a son.

At Fort St George, the Lady of George Thompson, Esq; of Negapatam, a daughter.

At Pondicherry, the Lady of Capt De Létang, a daughter.

June 1. At Uppat, in the county of Sutherland, the Lady of Capt. G. Sackville Sutherland of Uppat, a daughter.

6. At Glasgow, the Lady of John Taylor, Esq; late of Jamaica, a son.

7. At Leith-hall, Mrs Hay of Rannas, a daughter.

8. At Vienna, the Empress of Germany; an arch-duchess.

— At Carron-hall, the Lady of Major-Gen. Thomas Dundas, of Fingask, a daughter.

17. At St Bernard, the Lady of Sir John Sinclair, a son.

21. At Yeller House, the Marchioness of Tweedale, a son.

— At London, the Lady of A. Brodie, of Brodie, Esq; member of parliament a daughter.

24. At Clifton-hall, Mrs Maitland, a daughter.

27. At Aboyne Castle, Lady Strathaven, a son.

DEATHS.

At Waulkubjad, Lieut. James Campbell, of the 52d regiment.

At Fort St George, Mr Dodyn.

At Cuddalore, Lieut. Abraham Jarvis, of the 19th regiment of native infantry.

At Chunar, Lieut. Leslie, of Artillery.

At Calcutta, Lieut. Smith, of the 76th regt.—John Ramsay, Esq; Deputy Paymaster to the Artillery and Garrison—Lieut. H. McIntyre, of the 13th battalion of native infantry.

In India, Capt. Lauchlan Mackinnon, commanding the 12th battalion of native infantry.

May 19. At Logie, Miss Isabella Robertson, daughter of Lieut. George Robertson of the Navy.

On the 21st May, at sea, Lieut. Col. R. H. Buckeridge, of 64th regt. on his return from the West Indies.

22. At the manse of Latheron, Mrs Louisa Clunes, spouse of the Rev. Mr Robert Gunn, minister of Latheron.

28. At Aberdeen, Mrs Isbell Farquhar, who had been thirty-two years house-keeper in the infirmary there.

— At Hunterston, Mrs Hunter of Hunterston, Ayrshire.

— At Linton, Aberdeenshire, the Rev. Mr G. W. Aigernoon Gordon, minister of Keith.

30. At Harchope, Mrs Elizabeth Brown, widow of the late Mr Thomas Gibson, minister of Kirkurd.

At Hazlehead, near Aberdeen, Miss Helen Robertson, youngest daughter of Andrew Robertson of Foveran, Esq;

At Edinburgh, Dr Charles Irving, late of Jamaica.